GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- In this booklet, you are asked to write a story.
- You will read the start of a story and then use your imagination to finish it.
- You should not copy the start of the story.
- You may write down your ideas on the page labelled IDEAS before you begin to write your story.
- Please print or write as neatly as you can.
- When you have finished your story, CHECK YOUR WORK and correct any mistakes you find.
- You have 60 MINUTES to finish your story.

You may use this page to write down your ideas after you have read the start of the story.

IDEAS

Read the start of the story you are going to write and use your imagination to finish it.

One day, while I was sitting outside on the steps, I heard a truck screech around the corner. I saw dust fly up as the driver stepped on the gas. Suddenly, a great big box bounced off the back of the truck and landed on the sidewalk!

Blank lined paper with horizontal ruling lines.
